

High-quality optical power meter manufacturers

Article Overview

Leading manufacturers of optical power meters include L-com, Novanta Photonics, Agiltron, Shineway Tech, Hopu Optical, Senter Electronic, and Kingfisher, among others.

Top-Ranked Manufacturers

According to recent industry rankings, the top optical power meter manufacturers as of 2026 are L-com, Novanta Photonics, and Agiltron Inc. These companies are recognized for their precision instruments used in fiber-optic communications, laser testing, and photonics research .

Other Notable Manufacturers

Several other companies are widely used in industrial and laboratory settings:

- Shineway Tech – Offers bench-top and high-precision optical power meters suitable for factory and research environments .
- Hopu Optical – Provides instruments designed for both fiber-optic and free-space optical measurements .
- Senter Electronic – Known for durable and accurate optical power meters for scientific and industrial applications .
- Kingfisher – Specializes in handheld optical power meters with high accuracy, automatic self-calibration, and wide dynamic range for telecom and CATV networks .
