Article Overview

Top distribution box manufacturers in Malaysia include Box-Pak, YF Packaging, Weemax Packaging, and Megabox Industries, offering custom, industrial, and sustainable packaging solutions.

Leading Manufacturers

Box-Pak (Malaysia) Bhd is a major player in the ASEAN region, with plants in Selangor, Johor, Vietnam, and Myanmar. They specialize in corrugated cartons, die-cut trays, wraparound cartons, and custom designs. Box-Pak serves industries such as FMCG, electronics, food and beverage, and industrial sectors, with a production capacity of 175,000 metric tons and a workforce of 1,400 employees. They are known for high-speed automated corrugating machines and ISO-compliant quality standards, ensuring reliable delivery and premium packaging solutions. YF Packaging Malaysia offers end-to-end custom corrugated packaging solutions, from small mailer boxes to large industrial containers. Their 287,000 sq ft facility features high-speed digital printing and advanced structural design capabilities. YF Packaging emphasizes sustainability, using FSC-certified materials and eco-friendly inks, and provides flexible order quantities suitable for both local and international clients. Weemax Packaging Sdn Bhd provides comprehensive packaging services with in-house logistics to ensure timely delivery. Their factory is equipped with certified machinery meeting industry standards, and they are FSC® certified for sustainable sourcing. Weemax focuses on custom-made solutions for various industries, emphasizing quality control, project management, and customer satisfaction. Megabox Industries Sdn Bhd specializes in corrugated and carton boxes, offering custom-made packaging solutions for commercial and industrial needs. They provide a range of packaging options suitable for storage, shipping, and distribution purposes.
